

2025 Volume #3

For those of you who have moved to a warmer climate, here are recent pictures of Randolph posted by John Flood Jr. For those of you still in Randolph, oh my!

Below is a post on FB from Deb Everts regarding sending a bit of cheer to Don Millspaw. I included it for those of you who are not on Facebook.

“Hey Classmates. I was thinking how nice it would be if we mailed Don Millspaw a Christmas card. I had lost track of him since the Randolph Manor closed about two years ago and had no idea what became of him. I contacted his son, Ben, via Facebook to ask about his dad and to get a mailing address. This was his response (Dec. 10): "He has moved around a lot. He is in the Gowanda Rehab and Nursing Home. I am coming up next week to move him to SC. If anyone wants to send him a card, they can send it to my address Don Millspaw, 9115 Shorewood Pl, Belmont, NC 28012. He would really like that." I hope you will take the time to do this for Don.”

Let us know if there are other mates who could use a little cheer.

Jekyll Island decorates the island each year with many lights. The Jekyll Island Authority who does the decorations says there are 2 million lights, 500+ displays and 45,000 lights on the “great tree” alone.

Along one road there is a display of the Twelve Days of Christmas. You can't drive along the road without singing the song.

Send me anything of interest that you would like to share with our classmates; don't be shy.

Deb, I and Chewie, our cat, would like to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a healthy, happy New Year.
